This Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action ("Notice") has been sent to you pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and an Order of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court"). The purpose of this Notice is to inform you of the pendency of this class action (the "Litigation") between Lead Plaintiffs and Defendants Prudential, John R. Strangfeld, Richard C. Carbone, and Mark B. Grier ("Defendants") and the proposed $33 million settlement reached therein (the "Settlement") and of the hearing to be held by the Court to consider the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the Settlement as well as counsel's application for fees, costs, and expenses. This Notice describes what steps you may take in relation to the Settlement and this class action.¹

This Notice is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, an expression of any opinion by the Court with respect to the truth of the allegations in the Litigation as to any of the Defendants or the merits of the claims or defenses asserted by or against the Defendants. This Notice is solely to advise you of the proposed Settlement of the Litigation and of your rights in connection therewith.

SUMMARY OF THIS NOTICE

Statement of Class Recovery

Pursuant to the Settlement described herein, a $33 million settlement has been established. Based on Lead Plaintiffs' estimate of the number of shares of Prudential publicly traded common stock damaged during the Class Period, the average distribution per share under the Plan of Allocation is roughly $0.23 per share before deduction of any taxes on the income earned on the Settlement Amount thereof, notice and administration costs, and the attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses as determined by the Court. Class Members should note, however, that these are only estimates. A Class Member's actual recovery will be a proportion of the Net Settlement Fund determined by that claimant's claims as compared to the total claims of all Class Members who submit acceptable Proofs of Claim. An individual Class Member may receive more or less than this estimated average amount. See Plan of Allocation set forth and discussed at pages 7 and 8 below for more information on the calculation of your claim.

¹ All capitalized terms used in this Notice that are not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings provided in the Stipulation of Settlement dated April 18, 2016 (the "Settlement Agreement" or "Stipulation"), which is available on the website www.PFIsecuritieslitigation.com.

Statement of Potential Outcome of Case

The Settling Parties disagree on both liability and damages and do not agree on the amount of damages that would be recoverable if the Class prevailed on each claim alleged. The Defendants deny that they are liable to the Class and deny that the Class has suffered any damages. The issues on which the parties disagree are many, but include: (1) whether the Court's order granting class certification was legally proper; (2) whether Defendants engaged in conduct that would give rise to any liability to the Class under the federal securities laws, or any other laws; (3) whether Defendants have valid defenses to any such claims of liability; (4) the appropriate economic model for determining the amount by which the price of Prudential publicly traded common stock was allegedly artificially inflated (if at all) during the Class Period; (5) the amount, if any, by which the price of Prudential publicly traded common stock was allegedly artificially inflated (if at all) during the Class Period; (6) the effect of various market forces on the price of Prudential publicly traded common stock at various times during the Class Period; (7) the extent to which external factors influenced the price of Prudential publicly traded common stock at various times during the Class Period; (8) the extent to which the various matters that Lead Plaintiffs alleged were materially false or misleading influenced (if at all) the price of Prudential publicly traded common stock at various times during the Class Period; and (9) the extent to which the various allegedly adverse material facts that Lead Plaintiffs alleged were omitted influenced (if at all) the price of Prudential publicly traded common stock at various times during the Class Period.

Statement of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses Sought

Lead Counsel will apply to the Court for an award of attorneys' fees not to exceed thirty percent (30%) of the Settlement Amount, plus expenses not to exceed $1,000,000, plus interest earned on both amounts at the same rate as earned by the Settlement Fund. Since the action's inception, Lead Counsel has expended considerable time and effort in the prosecution of this Litigation on a wholly contingent basis and has advanced the expenses of the Litigation in the expectation that if it was successful in obtaining a recovery for the Class it would be paid from such recovery. In addition, one or more of the Lead Plaintiffs may seek payment for their time and expenses incurred in representing the Class. The requested attorneys' fees and expenses amount to an average cost of approximately $0.08 per damaged share of Prudential publicly traded common stock.

Please Do Not Call the Court or Defendants with Questions About the Settlement.

Reasons for the Settlement

Lead Plaintiffs' principal reason for entering into the Settlement is the benefit to the Class now, without further risk or the delays inherent in continued litigation. The cash benefit under the Settlement must be considered against the significant risk that a smaller recovery – or, indeed, no recovery at all – might be achieved after contested motions, trial, and likely appeals, a process that could last several years into the future. For the Defendants, who have denied and continue to deny all allegations of liability, fault, or wrongdoing whatsoever, the principal reason for entering into the Settlement is to eliminate the uncertainty, risk, costs, and burdens inherent in any litigation, especially in complex cases such as this Litigation. Defendants have concluded that further conduct of this Litigation could be protracted and distracting.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did I get this notice package?

This Notice was sent to you pursuant to an Order of a U.S. Federal Court because you or someone in your family or an investment account for which you serve as custodian may have purchased or otherwise acquired Prudential publicly traded common stock during the period from May 5, 2010, through and including November 4, 2011 ("Class Period").

This Notice explains the class action lawsuit, the Settlement, Class Members' legal rights in connection with the Settlement, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how to get them.

The Court in charge of the Litigation is the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, and the case is known as City of Sterling Heights General Employees' Retirement System v. Prudential Financial, Inc., et al., No. 2:12-cv-05275-MCA-LDW. The case has been assigned to the Honorable Madeline Cox Arleo. The individuals representing the Class are the "Lead Plaintiffs," and the company and individuals they sued and who have now settled are called the Defendants.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

On August 22, 2012, a putative class action was filed in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey alleging violations of federal securities laws. The Court has appointed the law firm of Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP as Lead Counsel. National Shopmen Pension Fund, Heavy & General Laborers' Locals 472 & 172 Pension and Annuity Funds, and Roofers Local No. 149 Pension Fund are the Court-appointed Lead Plaintiffs.

The Amended Complaint for Violations of Federal Securities Laws (the "Complaint") filed in the Litigation alleged Defendants made material misstatements and omissions regarding the financial health and status of Prudential. Specifically, Lead Plaintiffs alleged that Defendants issued materially false and misleading statements concerning Prudential's current and future financial condition, including its reserves and its potential liability to policyholders, their beneficiaries or relevant state authorities for millions of dollars in benefits that should have been paid out to policyholders or escheated to the states, and the extent of the Company's exposure to claims of state and federal law violations. On November 2, 2011, Prudential disclosed that it had taken a $99 million pre-tax charge to increase reserves in connection with its unclaimed property practices. The price of Prudential stock fell from $53.67 per share on November 2, 2011, to $52.19 per share on November 4, 2011, which Lead Plaintiffs alleged caused damages to purchasers of Prudential stock during the Class Period.

On February 6, 2014, the Court issued an Order denying Defendants' motion to dismiss the Complaint. On April 4, 2014, the Defendants answered the Complaint.

On August 31, 2015, the Court issued an Opinion and Order granting Lead Plaintiffs' motion for class certification. On January 11, 2016, the Third Circuit Court of Appeals granted Defendants' motion for leave to file an interlocutory appeal of the class certification order. Between March 12, 2014 and January 4, 2016, Lead Plaintiffs obtained over 3.5 million pages of documents from Defendants and 18 non-parties, and took 17 depositions. Following a January 5, 2016 status conference, the Court required the parties to mediate a possible resolution of the litigation. The parties thereafter engaged the services of the Hon. Layn R. Phillips (Ret.), a nationally-recognized mediator and former federal district court judge. The parties prepared detailed mediation statements and engaged in an in-person mediation session with Judge Phillips on February 24, 2016. These efforts culminated with the agreement to settle the Litigation for $33,000,000, subject to approval of the Settlement by the Court.

Defendants deny each and all of the claims and contentions of wrongdoing alleged by Lead Plaintiffs in the Litigation. Defendants contend that they did not make any materially false or misleading statements, that they disclosed all material information required to be disclosed by the federal securities laws, and that any alleged misstatements or omissions were not made with the requisite intent or knowledge of wrongdoing. Defendants also contend that any losses allegedly suffered by Members of the Class were not caused by any allegedly false or misleading statements by them and/or were caused by intervening events. Defendants also maintain that they have meritorious defenses to all claims that were raised or could have been raised in the Litigation.

3. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided in favor of the Defendants or of the Lead Plaintiffs. Instead, both sides agreed to the Settlement to avoid the distraction, costs, and risks of further litigation, and Lead Plaintiffs agreed to the Settlement in order to ensure that Class Members will receive compensation.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

4. How do I know if I am a Member of the Class?

The Court directed that everyone who fits this description is a Class Member: all Persons who purchased or otherwise acquired Prudential publicly traded common stock during the period from May 5, 2010, through and including November 4, 2011, and were allegedly damaged thereby, except those Persons and entities that are excluded.

Excluded from the Class are: (i) Prudential; (ii) John R. Strangfeld, Richard J. Carbone and Mark B. Grier (the "Individual Defendants"); (iii) members of the families of each Individual Defendant; (iv) any entity in which any Defendant has a controlling interest; (v) the officers and directors of Prudential during the Class Period; and (vi) the legal representatives, heirs, successors or assigns of any such excluded party. Also excluded from the Class are those Persons who timely and validly exclude themselves therefrom by submitting a request for exclusion in accordance with the requirements set forth in question 11 below.

Please Note: Receipt of this Notice does not mean that you are a Class Member or that you will be entitled to receive a payment from the Settlement. If you are a Class Member and you wish to be eligible to participate in the distribution of proceeds from the Settlement, you are required to submit the Proof of Claim that is being distributed with this Notice and the required supporting documentation as set forth therein postmarked or submitted online on or before November 2, 2016.

5. What if I am still not sure if I am included?

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can ask for free help. You can contact the Claims Administrator toll-free at 1-844-206-5867, or you can fill out and return the Proof of Claim form enclosed with this Notice package, to see if you qualify.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS – WHAT YOU GET

6. What does the Settlement provide?

The Settlement provides that, in exchange for the release of the Released Claims (defined below) and dismissal of the Litigation, Defendants have agreed to pay (or cause to be paid) $33 million in cash to be distributed after taxes, fees, and expenses, pro rata, to Class Members who send in a valid Proof of Claim form pursuant to the Court-approved Plan of Allocation. The Plan of Allocation is described in more detail at the end of this Notice.

7. How much will my payment be?

Your share of the Net Settlement Fund will depend on several things, including the total amount of claims represented by the valid Proof of Claim forms that Class Members send in, compared to the amount of your claim, all as calculated under the Plan of Allocation discussed below.

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT – SUBMITTING A CLAIM FORM

8. How can I get a payment?

To be eligible to receive a payment from the Settlement, you must submit a Proof of Claim form. A Proof of Claim form is enclosed with this Notice or it may be downloaded at www.PFIsecuritieslitigation.com. Read the instructions carefully, fill out the Proof of Claim, include all the documents the form asks for, sign it, and mail or submit it online so that it is postmarked (if mailed) or received (if submitted online) no later than November 2, 2016. The Proof of Claim form may be submitted online at www.PFIsecuritieslitigation.com.

9. When would I get my payment?

The Court will hold a Settlement Hearing on September 28, 2016, at 2:00 PM, to decide whether to approve the Settlement. If the Court approves the Settlement, there might be appeals. It is always uncertain whether appeals can be resolved, and if so, how long it would take to resolve them. It also takes time for all the Proofs of Claim to be processed. Please be patient.

10. What am I giving up to get a payment or to stay in the Class?

Unless you timely and validly exclude yourself, you are staying in the Class, and that means you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants or their Related Parties about the Released Claims (as defined below) in this case. It also means that all of the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you. If you remain a Class Member, and if the Settlement is approved, you will give up all "Released Claims" (as defined below), including "Unknown Claims" (as defined below), against the "Released Persons" (as defined below):

- "Released Claims" means any and all claims and causes of action of every nature and description, whether known or unknown, whether arising under federal, state, common or foreign law, whether class or individual in nature, that the Lead Plaintiffs or any Class Member asserted or could have asserted in the Litigation or any forum, which arise out of or relate in any way to both: (i) the purchase, acquisition, or sale of shares of Prudential publicly traded common stock purchased or acquired during the Class Period by Class Members, and (ii) any disclosures, public filings, registration statements, or other statements by Prudential or any Defendant in this Litigation based upon or arising out of any facts, matters, allegations, transactions, events, disclosures, statements, acts or omissions that were asserted or could have been asserted by Lead Plaintiffs or any Class Members in the Litigation. "Released Claims" does not include claims to enforce the Settlement. "Released Claims" includes "Unknown Claims" as defined below.
- "Released Defendants' Claims" means any and all claims and causes of action of every nature and description (including Unknown Claims), whether arising under federal, state, common or foreign law, that arise out of or relate in any way to the institution, prosecution or settlement of the claims against Defendants, except for claims relating to the enforcement of the Settlement.
- "Released Persons" means each and all of the Defendants and their Related Parties.
- "Related Parties" means each of a Defendant's respective former, present or future parents, subsidiaries, divisions and affiliates and the respective present and former employees, members, partners, principals, officers, directors, controlling shareholders, attorneys, advisors, accountants, auditors, and insurers of each of them; and the predecessors, successors, estates, spouses, heirs, executors, trusts, trustees, administrators, agents, legal or personal representatives and assigns of each of them, in their capacity as such.
- "Unknown Claims" means any Released Claims or Released Defendants' Claims which any of the Settling Parties or Class Members do not know or suspect to exist in his, her, or its favor at the time of the release of the Released Persons, Lead Plaintiffs, Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, or Class Members which, if known by him, her, or it, might have affected his, her, or its settlement with and release, or might have affected his, her, or its decision(s) with respect to the Settlement, including, but not limited to, whether or not to object to this Settlement or to the release of the Released Persons, Lead Plaintiffs, Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, or Class Members. With respect to any and all Released Claims and Released Defendants' Claims, the Settling Parties stipulate and agree that, upon the Effective Date, the Settling Parties shall expressly waive and each of the Settling Parties and Peter B. Sayre shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, expressly waived the provisions, rights, and benefits of California Civil Code §1542, which provides:

A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

The Settling Parties shall expressly waive and each of the Class Members shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, expressly waived any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, which is similar and comparable or equivalent to California Civil Code §1542. The Settling Parties may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those which he, she, or it now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of the Released Claims or Released Defendants' Claims, but such person or entity shall expressly settle and release, and each Class Member, upon the Effective Date, shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, fully, finally, and forever settled and released any and all Released Claims and Released Defendants' Claims, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, whether or not concealed or hidden, which now exist, or heretofore have existed, upon any theory of law or equity now existing or coming into existence in the future, including, but not limited to, conduct which is negligent, intentional, with or without malice, or a breach of any duty, law or rule, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts. The Settling Parties acknowledge, and the Class Members shall be deemed by operation of the Judgment to have acknowledged, that the foregoing waiver was separately bargained for and is a key element of the Settlement of which this release is a part.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE CLASS

If you do not want to participate in this Settlement, and you want to keep the right to potentially sue the Defendants and the other Released Persons, on your own, about the claims being released by the Settlement, then you must take steps to remove yourself from the Settlement. This is called excluding yourself – or is sometimes referred to as "opting out."

11. How do I get out of the Class and the proposed Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Class and the Settlement, you must send a letter by First-Class Mail stating that you "request exclusion from the Class in the PFI Securities Litigation." Your letter must include your purchases, acquisitions, and sales of Prudential publicly traded common stock during the Class Period, including the dates, the number of shares of Prudential stock purchased, acquired, or sold, and price paid or received for each such purchase, acquisition, or sale. In addition, you must include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature. You must submit your exclusion request so that it is postmarked no later than September 8, 2016 to:

PFI Securities Litigation
Claims Administrator
c/o Gilardi & Co. LLC
3301 Kerner Blvd.
San Rafael, CA 94901

If you ask to be excluded, you will not get any payment from the Settlement, and you cannot object to the Settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit, and you may be able to sue the Defendants and the other Released Persons about the Released Claims in the future.

12. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue the Defendants and the other Released Persons for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any rights you may potentially have to sue the Defendants and the other Released Persons for any and all Released Claims. If you have a pending lawsuit against the Released Persons speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. You must exclude yourself from the Class in this Litigation to continue your own lawsuit. Remember, the exclusion deadline is September 8, 2016.

13. If I exclude myself, can I get money from the proposed Settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you should not send in a Proof of Claim to ask for any money. But you may have the right to potentially sue or be part of a different lawsuit against the Defendants and the other Released Persons.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

14. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court ordered that the law firm of Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP represent the Class Members, including you. These lawyers are called Lead Counsel. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

15. How will the lawyers be paid?

Lead Counsel will apply to the Court for an award of attorneys' fees not to exceed thirty percent (30%) of the Settlement Amount and for expenses and costs in an amount not to exceed $1,000,000 in connection with the Litigation, plus interest on such fees and expenses at the same rate as earned by the Settlement Fund. In addition, the Lead Plaintiffs may seek up to $20,000, in the aggregate, for their time and expenses incurred in representing the Class. Such sums as may be approved by the Court will be paid from the Settlement Fund.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can tell the Court that you do not agree with the Settlement or any part of it.

16. How do I tell the Court that I object to the proposed Settlement?

If you are a Class Member, you can comment or object to the proposed Settlement, the proposed Plan of Allocation and/or Lead Counsel's fee and expense application. You can write to the Court setting out your comment or objection. The Court will consider your views. To comment or object, you must send a signed letter saying that you wish to comment on or object to the proposed Settlement in the PFI Securities Litigation. Include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature, identify the date(s), price(s), and number(s) of shares of Prudential publicly traded common stock you purchased, acquired, and sold during the Class Period, and state your comments or the reasons why you object to the proposed Settlement. Your comments or objection must be filed with the Court and mailed or delivered to each of the following addresses such that it is received no later than September 8, 2016:

17. What is the difference between objecting and excluding?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Class.

Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be paid and do not want to release any claims you think you may have against Defendants and their Related Parties. If you exclude yourself, you cannot object to the Settlement because it does not affect you.

THE COURT'S SETTLEMENT HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the proposed Settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak, but you do not have to.

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the proposed Settlement?

The Court will hold a Settlement Hearing at 2:00 PM, on September 28, 2016, in the Courtroom of the Honorable Madeline Cox Arleo, at the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, Martin Luther King Building & U.S. Courthouse, 50 Walnut Street, Newark, New Jersey. At the hearing the Court will consider whether the Settlement and the Plan of Allocation are fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them, even if you do not ask to speak at the hearing. The Court will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court may also decide how much to pay to Lead Counsel and Lead Plaintiffs. After the Settlement Hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement and the Plan of Allocation. We do not know how long these decisions will take. You should be aware that the Court may change the date and time of the Settlement Hearing without another notice being sent to Class Members. If you want to attend the hearing, you should check with Lead Counsel or the Settlement website www.PFIsecuritieslitigation.com beforehand to be sure that the date and/or time has not changed.

19. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Lead Counsel will answer questions the Court may have. But, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but it is not necessary. Class Members do not need to appear at the hearing or take any other action to indicate their approval.

20. May I speak at the hearing?

If you object to the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, or the fee and expense application, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Settlement Hearing. To do so, you must include with your objection (see question 16 above) a statement saying that it is your "Notice of Intention to Appear in the PFI Securities Litigation." Persons who intend to object to the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or any attorneys' fees and expenses to be awarded to Lead Counsel or Lead Plaintiffs and desire to present evidence at the Settlement Hearing must include in their written objections the identity of any witnesses they may call to testify and exhibits they intend to introduce into evidence at the Settlement Hearing. Your notice of intention to appear must be received no later than September 8, 2016, and addressed to the Clerk of Court, Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, and Defendants' counsel, at the addresses listed above in question 16.

You cannot speak at the hearing if you exclude yourself from the Class.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

21. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing, you will not receive any money from this Settlement. In addition, unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants and their Related Parties about the Released Claims in this case.

GETTING MORE INFORMATION

22. How do I get more information?

For even more detailed information concerning the matters involved in this Litigation, you can obtain answers to common questions regarding the proposed Settlement by contacting the Claims Administrator toll-free at 1-844-206-5867. Reference is also made to the Settlement Agreement, to the pleadings in support of the Settlement, to the Orders entered by the Court and to the other settlement related papers filed in the Litigation, which are posted on the Settlement website at www.PFIsecuritieslitigation.com, and which may be inspected at the Office of the Clerk of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, Martin Luther King Building & U.S. Courthouse, 50 Walnut Street, Room 4015, Newark, New Jersey, during regular business hours. For a fee, all papers filed in this Litigation are available at www.pacer.gov.

PLAN OF ALLOCATION OF NET SETTLEMENT FUND AMONG CLASS MEMBERS

The Settlement Amount of $33 million and any interest earned thereon is the "Settlement Fund." The Settlement Fund, less all taxes, approved costs, fees, and expenses (the "Net Settlement Fund") shall be distributed to Class Members who submit timely and valid Proof of Claim forms to the Claims Administrator ("Authorized Claimants"). The Plan of Allocation provides that you will be eligible to participate in the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund only if you have an overall net loss on all of your transactions in Prudential publicly traded common stock during the Class Period.

For purposes of formulating the Plan of Allocation and determining the amount an Authorized Claimant may recover under it, Lead Counsel has conferred with its damages consultant regarding the Plan of Allocation and it reflects an assessment of the damages that it believes could have been recovered by Class Members had Lead Plaintiffs prevailed at trial.

In the unlikely event there are sufficient funds in the Net Settlement Fund, each Authorized Claimant will receive an amount equal to the Authorized Claimant's claim, as defined below. If, however, and as is more likely, the amount in the Net Settlement Fund is not sufficient to permit payment of the total claim of each Authorized Claimant, then each Authorized Claimant shall be paid the percentage of the Net Settlement Fund that each Authorized Claimant's claim bears to the total of the claims of all Authorized Claimants. Payment in this manner shall be deemed conclusive against all Authorized Claimants.

The allocation below is based on a potential maximum claim per share equal to $1.31. This value represents the estimated inflation attributable to the Company's November 3, 2011 price decline. Allowed claims will also be subjected to the statutory PSLRA 90-day look-back amount of $51.77.²

The calculation of claims below is not an estimate of the amount you will receive. It is a formula for allocating the Net Settlement Fund among all Authorized Claimants. Furthermore, if any of the formulas set forth below yield an amount less than $0.00, the claim per share shall be $0.00.

A "claim" will be calculated as follows:

² Pursuant to Section 21D(e)(1) of the PSLRA, "in any private action arising under this chapter in which the plaintiff seeks to establish damages by reference to the market price of a security, the award of damages to the plaintiff shall not exceed the difference between the purchase or sale price paid or received, as appropriate, by the plaintiff for the subject security and the mean trading price of that security during the 90-day period beginning on the date on which the information correcting the misstatement or omission that is the basis for the action is disseminated to the market."

³ Shares of Prudential publicly traded common stock that were purchased and/or acquired on November 3 and November 4, 2011 are not eligible for recovery under the Plan of Allocation because the substance of the alleged disclosure on November 4, 2011 did not result in economic loss. Dkt. No. 335 at 4 n.3.

The date of purchase or sale is the "contract" or "trade" date as distinguished from the "settlement" date.

For Class Members who held Prudential publicly traded common stock at the beginning of the Class Period or made multiple purchases, acquisitions, or sales during the Class Period, the First-In, First-Out ("FIFO") method will be applied to such holdings, purchases, acquisitions, and sales for purposes of calculating a claim. Under the FIFO method, sales of Prudential publicly traded common stock during the Class Period will be matched, in chronological order, first against shares of common stock held at the beginning of the Class Period. The remaining sales of common stock during the Class Period will then be matched, in chronological order, against common stock purchased or acquired during the Class Period.

A Class Member will be eligible to receive a distribution from the Net Settlement Fund only if a Class Member had a net overall loss, after all profits from transactions in all Prudential publicly traded common stock described above during the Class Period are subtracted from all losses. However, the proceeds from sales of common stock that have been matched against the common stock held at the beginning of the Class Period will not be used in the calculation of such net loss. No distributions will be made to Authorized Claimants who would otherwise receive a distribution of less than $10.00.

The Court has reserved jurisdiction to allow, disallow, or adjust the claim of any Class Member on equitable grounds.

Payment pursuant to the Plan of Allocation set forth above shall be conclusive against all Authorized Claimants. Defendants, their respective counsel, and all other Released Persons will have no responsibility or liability whatsoever for the investment of the Settlement Fund, the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund, the Plan of Allocation, or the payment of any claim. No Person shall have any claim against Lead Plaintiffs, Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, the Claims Administrator, or other Person designated by Lead Counsel, Defendants, or Defendants' counsel based on distributions made substantially in accordance with the Stipulation and the Settlement contained therein, the Plan of Allocation, or further orders of the Court. All Class Members who fail to complete and submit a valid and timely Proof of Claim shall be barred from participating in distributions from the Net Settlement Fund (unless otherwise ordered by the Court), but otherwise shall be bound by all of the terms of the Stipulation, including the terms of any judgment entered and the releases given.

I (We) have not submitted any other claim covering the same purchases, acquisitions, or sales of Prudential publicly traded common stock during the Class Period and know of no other person having done so on my (our) behalf.

V. RELEASE

1. Upon the Effective Date of the Settlement, I (we) acknowledge full and complete satisfaction of, and fully, finally, and forever settle, release, and discharge from the Released Claims each and all of the "Released Persons," defined as each and all of the Defendants and their Related Parties. "Related Parties" means each of a Defendant's respective former, present or future parents, subsidiaries, divisions and affiliates and the respective present and former employees, members, partners, principals, officers, directors, controlling shareholders, attorneys, advisors, accountants, auditors, and insurers of each of them; and the predecessors, successors, estates, spouses, heirs, executors, trusts, trustees, administrators, agents, legal or personal representatives and assigns of each of them, in their capacity as such.

2. "Released Claims" means any and all claims and causes of action of every nature and description, whether known or unknown, whether arising under federal, state, common or foreign law, whether class or individual in nature, that the Lead Plaintiffs or any Class Member asserted or could have asserted in the Litigation or any forum, which arise out of or relate in any way to both: (i) the purchase, acquisition, or sale of shares of Prudential publicly traded common stock purchased or acquired during the Class Period by Class Members, and (ii) any disclosures, public filings, registration statements, or other statements by Prudential or any Defendant in this Litigation based upon or arising out of any facts, matters, allegations, transactions, events, disclosures, statements, acts or omissions that were asserted or could have been asserted by Lead Plaintiffs or any Class Members in the Litigation. "Released Claims" does not include claims to enforce the Settlement. "Released Claims" includes "Unknown Claims" as defined below.

3. "Unknown Claims" means any Released Claims or Released Defendants' Claims which any of the Settling Parties or Class Members do not know or suspect to exist in his, her, or its favor at the time of the release of the Released Persons, Lead Plaintiffs, Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, or Class Members which, if known by him, her, or it, might have affected his, her, or its settlement with and release, or might have affected his, her, or its decision not to object to this Settlement or to the release of the Released Persons, Lead Plaintiffs, Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, or Class Members. With respect to any and all Released Claims and Released Defendants' Claims, the Settling Parties stipulate and agree that, upon the Effective Date, the Settling Parties shall expressly waive and each of the Settling Parties and Peter B. Sayre shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, expressly waived the provisions, rights, and benefits of California Civil Code §1542, which provides:

A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

The Settling Parties shall expressly waive and each of the Class Members shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, expressly waived any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable or equivalent to California Civil Code §1542. The Settling Parties may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those which he, she, or it now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of the Released Claims or Released Defendants' Claims, but such person or entity shall expressly settle and release and each Class Member, upon the Effective Date, shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, fully, finally, and forever settled and released any and all Released Claims and Released Defendants' Claims, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, whether or not concealed or hidden, which now exist, or heretofore have existed, upon any theory of law or equity now existing or coming into existence in the future, including, but not limited to, conduct which is negligent, intentional, with or without malice, or a breach of any duty, law or rule, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts. The Settling Parties acknowledge, and the Class Members shall be deemed by operation of the Judgment to have acknowledged, that the foregoing waiver was separately bargained for and is a key element of the Settlement of which this release is a part.

4. I (We) hereby warrant and represent that I (we) have not assigned or transferred or purported to assign or transfer, voluntarily or involuntarily, any matter released pursuant to this release or any other part or portion thereof.

5. I (We) hereby warrant and represent that I (we) have included the information requested about all of my (our) transactions in Prudential publicly traded common stock which are the subject of this claim, which occurred during the Class Period, as well as the opening and closing positions in such securities held by me (us) on the dates requested in this claim form.
